

bc211 Executive Director - Bob Prenovost, CRM, PMP, LEED® AP

Bob is a leader who has a track record of turning strategy into action, leading complex projects and high impact programs. Bob has held senior management positions in the public, private and social profit sectors. The first part of his career was in the hospitality industry where he held increasing senior roles, including Vice-President of Food Service for a national restaurant organization. His first role in the not for profit sector was in primary education and daycare, which motivated Bob to redirect his career to focus on initiatives that support social change. He has engaged with a diverse range of organizations, including Tradeworks Training Society, Downtown Eastside Centre for the Arts, Strathcona Health Society and Big Brothers Big Sisters Canada, as a project and risk management advisor.

In 2009 Bob founded pm-volunteers.org[™], a non-profit initiative that connects skilled, volunteer project management professionals with charitable not-for-profit organizations. PM-V has supported over 100 projects and given back more than 8000 hours of pro bono project management services to 106 community organizations in British Columbia. As a result of his work with PM-V in area of knowledge philanthropy, Bob recently received the coveted Outstanding Volunteer Fundraiser Award from the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP).

In his most recent role, Bob served as Principal with Propellor Social Enterprise Advisors, a consultancy practice focused on the non-profit and social enterprise sectors.

Bob is a graduate from the Advanced Management Program for the Hospitality Industry (University of Guelph). He holds professional designations in Project Management (PMP), Risk Management (CRM) and Sustainability (LEED AP). He serves on the boards of Vantage Point and the Canadian West Coast Chapter of the Project Management Institute.
